

Present Continuous for Future:

The Present Continuous tense can be used to express future plans or arrangements, especially when they are fixed or decided.

Structure:

- Subject + am/is/are + present participle (base verb + -ing)

Examples:

1. We are meeting at the café tomorrow. (Planned future meeting)
2. She is flying to Paris next week. (Scheduled flight)
3. They are attending the conference on Friday. (Scheduled event)

Summary Chart:

| Type | Example Sentence |
|---------------|--|
| Affirmative | We are having a party on Saturday. |
| Negative | She isn't coming to the meeting tomorrow. |
| Interrogative | Are you leaving for the airport now? |