

Present Perfect:

The Present Perfect tense is used to indicate actions or events that have a connection to the present moment. It emphasizes the result or completion of an action rather than the specific time it occurred.

Structure:

- Subject + have/has + past participle (verb form)

Examples:

1. She has visited Paris three times. (Emphasizes the experience up to now)
2. They have never eaten sushi. (Emphasizes the experience up to now)

Summary Chart:

Type	Example Sentence
