

Imperatives:

Imperatives are sentence structures used to give commands, make requests, or offer suggestions. They are direct and typically do not have a subject. Instead, they begin with a base form of the verb.

Examples:

1. (You) Open the window. (Command)
2. (Please) Pass me the salt. (Request)
3. (Let's) Go to the park. (Suggestion)
