

QUESTIONS

Questions in English are sentences used to gather information, seek clarification, or prompt a response. There are two main types of questions: Yes/No questions and Wh-questions.

1. Yes/No Questions:

- These questions can be answered with "yes" or "no."
- To form a Yes/No question, invert the subject and auxiliary verb (if there is one), or use the auxiliary verb "do" or "does" for present tense questions.

Structure:

- For present tense questions (with "do" or "does"):
 - Do/Does + subject + base form of the main verb + ?

Examples:

- Do you like ice cream?
- Does he have a car?
- Are they coming to the party?

2. Wh-Questions:

- Wh-questions are used to gather specific information and begin with question words like "what," "who," "where," "when," "why," and "how."

Structure:

- Question Word + auxiliary verb (if needed) + subject + base form of the main verb + ?

Examples:

- What is your favorite color?
- Where does she live?
- Who is coming to the meeting?
- When did you arrive?
- Why are they late?
- How do you make pizza?
