

Verb + ing/infinitive: like/want-would like

Like + Verb + ing:

When you use "like" followed by a verb + ing, it means you enjoy or have a preference for doing that activity.

- Example: She likes dancing.

Want + Verb:

When you use "want" followed by a verb (base form), it indicates a desire or a wish to do something.

- Example: They want to go to the beach.

Would Like + To + Verb:

This is a polite way to express a desire or request for something.

- Example: I would like to order a pizza.

Examples:

1. She likes swimming in the ocean. (enjoyment of an activity)
2. He wants to learn how to play the guitar. (desire to do something)
3. They would like to visit the museum. (polite request or desire)

Summary Chart:

Structure	Example Sentence
Like + Verb + ing	She likes painting .
Want + Verb	He wants to travel .
Would Like + To + Verb	I would like to try that restaurant.