

VERB + ING

"Verb + ing" is a common structure in English where verbs are followed by the -ing form of another verb. In this case, we'll focus on verbs like "like," "hate," and "love" when they are followed by the -ing form of verbs. This structure is used to express preferences, emotions, or opinions about actions or activities.

Here's how it works:

Structure:

- "Like," "hate," and "love" are verbs that can be followed by the -ing form of another verb.

Examples:

1. Like + Verb + ing:

- I like swimming in the ocean.
- She likes reading books.
- They like playing basketball.

2. Hate + Verb + ing:

- He hates cleaning the house.
- We hate waiting in long lines.
- She hates doing homework.

3. Love + Verb + ing:

- They love traveling to new places.
- She loves dancing at parties.
- He loves cooking Italian food.

Summary Chart:

Verb	Example Sentences
Like	I like swimming in the ocean.
Hate	He hates cleaning the house.
Love	They love traveling to new places.