

Prepositions of Time - in/on/at:

Prepositions of time help us understand when an event or action occurs. The three most common prepositions of time are in, on, and at.

"In":

- In is used to refer to a period of time, like months, years, seasons, and longer durations.
  - I will graduate in June.
  - She will return in a few hours.

"On":

- On is used to refer to specific days or dates.
  - The meeting is scheduled for on Monday.
  - Our anniversary is on May 15th.

"At":

- At is used for specific points in time, like hours.
  - We have a meeting at 3 PM.
  - She arrived at midnight.

Examples:

1. The party is in December. (Referring to a month)
2. We have a meeting on Friday. (Referring to a specific day)
3. He wakes up early at 6 o'clock. (Referring to a specific hour)

Summary Chart:

Preposition	Example Phrases
In	in May, in summer, in 2022
On	on Monday, on July 4th
At	at 8 AM, at noon, at night