

Prepositional Phrases (Place and Movement):

Prepositional phrases are groups of words that begin with a preposition and end with a noun or pronoun. They provide information about location, direction, time, and manner.

Place:

- Prepositional phrases indicating place tell us where something is located or takes place.
 - The book is on the table. (The prepositional phrase "on the table" indicates the location of the book.)
 - She lives in the city. (The prepositional phrase "in the city" indicates the location of her residence.)

Movement:

- Prepositional phrases indicating movement tell us how something moves or the direction it's moving in.
 - The bird flew across the sky. (The prepositional phrase "across the sky" indicates the direction of the bird's flight.)
 - He walked towards the park. (The prepositional phrase "towards the park" indicates the direction of his walk.)

Examples:

1. She put the keys on the table.
2. The cat jumped over the fence.
3. They went into the building.
4. He walked along the river.
