

Possessive adjectives

Possessive adjectives are used to indicate ownership or possession of something. They are placed before nouns and show who the owner is. In English, there are seven possessive adjectives: my, your, his, her, its, our, and their.

Here's a breakdown of each possessive adjective:

1. My: Indicates possession by the speaker or the first person singular.
  - Example: This is my book.
2. Your: Indicates possession by the person you are addressing or the second person singular.
  - Example: Is this your car?
3. His: Indicates possession by a male or the third person singular masculine.
  - Example: That is his laptop.
4. Her: Indicates possession by a female or the third person singular feminine.
  - Example: She left her umbrella here.
5. Its: Indicates possession by an object or an animal (third person singular neuter).
  - Example: The cat is licking its paw.
6. Our: Indicates possession by a group that includes the speaker (first person plural).
  - Example: These are our seats.
7. Their: Indicates possession by a group that does not include the speaker (third person plural).
  - Example: Their house is beautiful.

Summary Chart:

Possessive Adjective	Usage	Example Sentence
My	First person singular	This is my book.
Your	Second person singular	Is this your car?
His	Third person singular, masculine	That is his laptop.
Her	Third person singular, feminine	She left her umbrella here.
Its	Third person singular, neuter	The cat is licking its paw.
Our	First person plural	These are our seats.

Possessive Adjective	Usage	Example Sentence
Their	Third person plural	Their house is beautiful.