

PREPOSITIONS OF TIME

Prepositions of Time are words that indicate when an action or event occurs. Three common prepositions used to talk about time are "in," "on," and "at."

1. In:

- Used to indicate a general period of time, such as months, seasons, years, or longer durations.
- Example: We go on vacation in the summer.

2. On:

- Used to specify particular days and dates.
- Example: My birthday is on March 15th.

3. At:

- Used for specific points in time, such as times of the day, holidays, and clock hours.
- Example: We have a meeting at 2:00 PM.

Here are more examples:

- I will see you in an hour.
- We have a party on Saturday.
- The train arrives at midnight.
- The conference is in October.
- They will visit on New Year's Day.
- The concert starts at 7:30 PM.

Summary Chart:

Preposition	Usage	Example Sentences
In	General periods of time	We go on vacation in the summer.
On	Specific days and dates	My birthday is on March 15th.
At	Specific points in time	We have a meeting at 2:00 PM.